2024 Term 3, End of Week 5 Roundup

SSO Week

SSO Week is a time to say thank you for all the work that SSOs do. We celebrated with a morning tea on Tuesday. At the morning tea, SSOs were presented with cards made by the classes and a gift.

Book Week

This week is Book Week. On Monday classes participated in an online author session with Remi Lai. On Tuesday Aled (our PCW) did reading sessions with some classes and most classes visited the Mobile Library. On Wednesday classes participated in another online author/illustrator session with Louise Park. Tomorrow is dress up day – come as your favourite book character. The parade will be at 2:30pm on the asphalt – all families and community members are welcome.

School Photos

School photo day is on Tuesday 24th September (Week 10). Packs/envelopes have been sent home for individual and class photos. Family photo envelopes are available on request at the front office. All orders and payments are made directly to the photography company - Advanced Life. You can order photos online at www.advancedlife.com.au, or send the order envelope with your child on photo day, to give directly to the Advanced Life photographers.

Christmas Pageant Float Competition

Congratulations to Yasmine, Arrily and Sue who have received Honourable Mentions for being in the top 20 runners up out of over 400 entries this year.

Choir rehearsal at Magic Millions

On Wednesday our choir students went to Magic Millions for the rehearsal with all the schools they will be performing with at the Festival Theatre in September. They did an awesome job and represented the school so well.

Pupil Free Day & School Closure

The next Pupil Free Day is almost upon us – next Friday. This is followed by a School Closure on the following Monday. If you need to organise care for your child/children, please contact OSHC via the booking app "Spike".
