2025 Term 2, End of Week 3 Roundup

34R Excursion – Karkungka Reserve

Last Friday 34R went on an excursion to the local park (Kesmond Reserve – now named Karkungka Reserve). Students participated in a number of activities that related to their learning including Maths and HASS. Please see the class Seesaw page for photos and more information.

02A Excursion – Tea Tree Gully Heritage Museum

02A went to the Tea Tree Gully Heritage Museum last Friday as a part of their HASS – History learning. Students were able to see how things have changed over time. Please refer to the class Seesaw page for photos of the day.

Soccer at St Clair

Last Saturday the soccer season started. Students played their games at St Clair. We have over one hundred students playing this year, which is amazing. We thank the organisers (Tania & Maree) and all the coaches and helpers for making participation in soccer possible.

PUPIL FREE DAY

On Monday the staff participated in a Pupil Free Day. The day comprised of two parts – half a day on functional grammar and LEAP Levelling with Lou Bradshaw and half a day on Writing groups, conferencing and goal setting with Bobbie Cameron. It was a valuable day of training for all.

Torrens – Darlington South Road Community Mtg

On Tuesday night a community meeting was held in our hall about the T2D Project. Should you be interested in finding out more, please visit their website www.t2d.sa.gov.au Please see Facebook for photos.

Archery National Championships

Congratulations to Hakeem who competed in the 2025 National Youth Archery Championships in Canberra in April. He received a gold medal for Overall Best Compound Team and a bronze medal for the U14/16 Team match-play event.

School times

The school is open for students from 8:30am. At this time there are teachers on yard duty to supervise. Any students arriving before this time need to be booked into OSHC. OSHC bookings are via the Spike app.
